ALPHA OMEGA
1963

Foreword

We, the Class of '63, present the 1963 Alpha Omega. The name of our yearbook, Alpha Omega, means the beginning and the end in the Greek language. To the Class of '63 this has a double meaning. This book represents the beginning and the end of our high school years—years filled with fun and work. We are reminded of the friends we've made and the things we've done.

Alpha Omega has a second, stronger meaning. June, 1963, marks the beginning of a new life and the end of our old life. We are leaving our high school, many of our friends, and in some cases our families and we are venturing into a new life with new friends, new surroundings, and eventually new families of our own. We must remember when we hear the words Alpha Omega that it is not only the name of our yearbook but also the story of our lives during high school and after.

Peace

Let there be peace on earth,
 And let it begin with me.
Let there be peace on earth,
 The peace that was mean't to be.
With God as our father,
 Brothers all are we.
Let me walk with my
 Brother in perfect harmony.
Let peace begin with me—
 Let this be the moment now.
With every step I take,
 May this be my solemn vow:
To take each moment and live
 Each moment in peace eternally.
Let there be peace on earth,
 And let it begin with me.

Author unknown

We, the class of 1963, dedicate our yearbook to peace, in the hope that we are predestined to help earn the price man must pay to unite a world in peace. However, the price must not include our freedom, for slavery is worse than war.

Remember When:

We saw "West Side Story."

Betty L. said, "Is there much drinking in Grover's Corners?"

"Pattie-Pick-Up" was raiding the towns.

We took our U. S. History final on the honor system.

They flooded the chemistry lab.

The last variety show rehearsal went so smoothly (?).

Diane C. had a ripping time on mountain day.

Everyone went to the school committee meetings.

We had all the orderly (?) class meetings.

Sheila ate animal crackers in her soup.

What If?

Duf didn't play basketball.

Miss Russell didn't like math.

No one ever skipped class.

Mr. Tremblay ran out of his witty (?) puns.

There were no reception line at the Junior-Senior Reception.

Mr. Small were at a loss for words.

Mr. Williams didn't wink.

Dave Connolly had a book over-due.

Someone got by room 14 without a pass.

Nirvana had a pixie hair cut.

Iggy had pumpkin pie.

Gail didn't like to eat.

Kathy L. didn't say, "Hi! How are ya?"

Class History

In the fall of 1961, a large puff of smoke blew into Pep Town carrying two groups together to form a new community. From these two diverse sources rose the nucleus of the Class of '63, whose undoubted talents (a-hem) for workmanship, sportsmanship, and fellowship forged the links that would culminate in graduation in June of '63.

During the past two years, we have become a unit, where old loyalties were incorporated into a newer and greater loyalty to our new headquarters and our ever-increasing responsibilities.

A town meeting was called and various "town fathers" were elected to direct the affairs of the new community. They were as follows: Mayor—John Laitala; Assistant Mayor—Sue Holt; Tax-Collector—Kathy LePoer; and Town Crier—Betty Lynch. Our representatives for "Girls and Boys" legislature were Carol Thompson and John Laitala.

During this election year, the class was very active. In the spring, after several successful dances, we were hosts to the Class of '62 at a Hawaiian Luau, the Junior-Senior Reception. The year ended with the Junior-Senior Prom "Starlight Rhapsody," which was the biggest success of the year.

In the fall of '62 the community was called to order again by John Laitala, re-elected Mayor, to map out our last year of group work—together. The other members of the Council were Assistant Mayor—Jukka Salokangus; Tax-collector—Carol Thompson; and Town-Crier—Betty Lynch. Our representative for Student Government Day was Harold Soucier.

Eager and excited to enjoy our last year, we started many activities. Our agenda was full and challenging—several town socials; a nature study at Mt. Monadnock; a variety show and a play to name a few. A full report of the community projects was recorded in the town report—Alpha Omega, edited by Kathy LePoer during the year. In it were found the Community motto: "More Than Yesterday—Less Than Tomorrow." The Community Mascot—Two White Doves; the Community song—Climb Every Mountain; the Community colors—Mint green and White; and the Community flower—White Rose.

The social events ending an exciting year were a prom and our graduation into a larger community.

We go forth into the world better prepared to cope with the problems of the day, than we had been when our new community was founded two years ago.

A salute to the past and a dream and a prayer for the future!

We the class of 1963, of North Middlesex Regional High School, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make this last will and testament:

Class Will

Senior Class Prophecy . . .

PAT FORTUNATO, DANA MURPHY, and STEVE SCHOFIELD who are home on leave from the Navy are visiting their home town of Pep-Town. They have just arrived at AL NORTONEN'S airport. As they limbo down the ramp, they twist good-bye to stewardess JUDY STOCKWELL.

At their disposal is the Patty-Pick-Up-Taxi-Service run by JUDI LORDEN. As they approach the center of town they pass the Iron Cow Factory which is owned by ALLAN McCULLOUGH. Further down the road they see an old-fashioned country store owned by BOB LAW. They decide to stop, and inside they see SUE HOLT, who has come down from the Wolverton Mountain to buy goodies. They also meet JERRY CURRIER, who is buying supplies for his toothpick company in the hills. As they continue to travel on this lonely road they pass ALICE COLBERT'S summer camp for boys. At the camp they notice DARNA DUFOUR who is teaching a course on how to stay in the saddle without a horse. Going into the city, they approach (Fink Foley) FRED BROWN'S funeral parlor. Across from the funeral parlor is DICK ELLIOTT'S service station where BRUCE KOCH is trying to be the chief mechanic. In the adjoining lot BILL BELLOWS is selling cars to anyone who wants a cheap car for a lot of money.

They decide to stop at the library and renew acquaintances with the president of the library, DAVE CONNOLLY, and librarian, BARBARA FENTON. While they are in the library they meet the town minister, HAROLD SOUCIER, and the town pastor, PHIL ST. JOHN.

Next they decide to visit the school. In the athletic department they visit MIKE FLAMINIO who is the head athletic coach, NANCY TAYLOR, the basketball coach, and STEVE HAMEL, the football coach. Taking a tour of the school they meet the teachers. KAREN GANONG is head of the sandbox classes at "Ding Dong" School. Then they are escorted to the teachers' room where they meet DONA McGRATH, sociology teacher, and CAROL THOMPSON, P.O.D. teacher. Before they leave they are introduced to the French teacher, DIANE CLERMONT.

. . . Pep-Town in 1973

As they continue, they stop in at GAIL BRADBURY'S coffee shop where they have Gail's special: peanut butter, cheese and jelly sandwiches. After their lunch they go to the bakery in the adjoining building which is owned by LINDA BLOOD, and they decide to try JEAN LYNDE'S Brown Bread. At the bakery they meet STEVE CHASE, the T.V. repairman, EDWARD KELLEHER, the butcher, and ED TUMBER, the town plumber. Then they cross the street and go to JERRI TULE'S drug store where they pick up a copy of the newspaper. The paper is issued once a year by KATHY LEPOER, editor, and LINDA NELSON, co-editor, but they are trying to have DAVE PARKER, printer, make it a daily edition. As Dave reads JOAN PILLSBURY'S "Dear Abby" column he notices that the owner of the trucking company, HAZEL BLOOD, intends to marry the used car dealer. As he turns to the ads in the paper, he sees that JUDY GRAY, proud owner of the Little Club, is holding a fashion show, featuring clothes by seamstress EUNICE WILSON, and to be worn by model KATHY REESE. On the opposite page he notices that RITVA RANTAMAKI, the town travel agent, is having a special price on one way trips to Finland on skis.

In the want ads Pat notices that SKIP BENNETT is running an ad for more students in his driver education school, and the CECILE WILSON is looking for more babysitting jobs. With newspapers underarm they leave the drugstore and enter the town hall where they are greeted by the receptionist, JOY STEWART. She introduces them to the secretary BETTY LYNCH, and public accountant FRANK KRANTZ. They are then greeted by the mayor's secretary, CAROL KNIGHT, who then introduces them to the mayor, JOHN LAITALA. In the mayor's office are the town policemen, BOB SARGENT and DON SHERBURNE. Then Carol tells the mayor that he is expected to attend the meeting of the public officials, and that the meeting would be held in the office of the town's lawyers, PETE BAILEY and JACK CAMPBELL. They are interrupted by SHEILA TOWNSEND, secretary to the judge, JIM STOLL. Sheila wants to ask the mayor when he can see the state's worst inventor, MAURICE COMEAU. The mayor tells her he will see Maurice after he talks with KATHY FARRIS about her carnival which she is going to bring to town for the annual town fair.

On leaving the town hall, they go to TOM O'TOOLE'S hardware store where they meet JUKKA SALOKANGAS, who is buying towels for his famous sauna. LINDA MAGNAN is in Tom's store and is buying articles for her new home which she has just purchased from real estate dealer DON HALEY.

It is now early afternoon as they continue their tour of their home town and they stop at one of the town's most famous industries, the DAIGLE BROTHERS cough drop company, where BETTY DECOFF is working as their secretary. Right across from the cough drop company is the town's shopping center, owned and operated by JULIAN BOLDEN. This shopping center is one of the most modern around. It has such stores as a laundromat owned by DANNY (Clean-It-Yourself) ADAMS, a flower shop which is run by ESTHER LAWRENCE and VIRGINIA CREIGHTON, and a beauty shop where three hairdressers are on duty at all times, BARBARA (Bleach) McMAHON, SUSAN (Scissors) GOODWIN, and DOROTHY (Dyed) LORDEN.

They make one more stop before they start their evening of entertainment. This stop is the town asylum. They are greeted by nurse (Nasty-Needle) SHARON HUSSEY, who tells them that the (mad) doctor, ROLLY SPOFFORD, will not be able to see them because he is experimenting on patient MYRTLE ROBERTS. As they start their evening of fun and entertainment they go to the opera theater where LINDA MERRILL is straining her tonsils before she goes to New York to perform. Then they go to the theater on Main Street, which is owned and operated by JOHN GAIZICK. Here DON CONDRA and NIRVANA RONNING are putting on their latest show "The Egyptian Mummy," before taking it on tour.

As they leave the theater, it is midnight and our friends find it is time to leave. They have found all their friends and they have renewed old memories with them, and now they part from Pep-Town. As we see the jet flying over the night skies, we know that we will never forget our class for years to come.

PATRIOTS

The Patriots started their season slowly but managed to win five straight and tie for second place in the Wachusett League.

Bob Law was the most improved player, John Laitala the floor captain, Frank Wells the point getter, and Mike Flaminio the fire-ball on the Patriots new 1962-63 line-up. Dave Connolly came in late and proved to be an important member of the team. Tom Mahoney and Mike Myers provided the team with strong reserves. The other boys on the squad, Pete Marr, Carl Pike, Scott Schoppe, Jim Hamilton, Curt Hamilton, John Annala, and Bob Ciampa, did a great job when called upon.

Mountain Day

October 16, 1962

With great expectation, we looked forward to the traditional Mountain Day. Finally it came, and we were ready to meet the challenge with high hopes. After what seemed an endless ride, we reached our destination, ready, willing, and able. Success came in a matter of hours, and Mt. Monadnock was conquered. The end of the day found our seniors tired and sore, but pleased at their accomplishments.

"If he would only ask me out."

"You don't say."

"Keep your eyes on the game, Skip"

"You mean that today is Saturday?"

"Watch your fingers."

"Brussels was never like this."

"Should I, or shouldn't I?"

"How did that get in the picture?"

"The gang."

"Cheese"

"Loafing as usual"

"Hi, there"

"Yawn!"

"He's late again."

"Tall Paul, he's my all."

"This is really too much"

"Don't do that again."

"Ask Mr. Tremblay."

Fun

"Oooh, I just twisted my back out of joint."

"Is he crazy?"

"Is everybody happy?"

and

"I've even got my backbrush."

"Who said the sac dress went out of style?"

"I think I'm lost."

"Our bathing beauties"

"I told you I'd get him."

"Dig those crazy hats."

"A snake! Now I know he's crazy!"

"You name it and you can have it."

"Only her hairdresser knows for sure."

"Where are the towels?"

"Let's not get cozy, Mr. Snell."

"I think I'll skip."

"I said we'd be out late, but this is ridiculous."

Excitement

"Wise guy."

"Naughty, naughty."

"Boy, am I tired."

"Anyone for a dip?"

"Don't be bashful."

"Mother, please, I'd rather do it myself."

"I wonder if it's worth it?"

SCHOOL LIFE

"It was here last time I looked."

"What do you mean, I can't have my motorcycle?"

"The office boys."

"Honestly! Some of these kids are such fussy eaters."

"Tell Santa what you want."

"Come and get your nitrates."

"What do you mean, Santa Claus committed suicide!"

"Don't think I'm afraid to flunk you."

"Let's twist again."

"See Gail, there is a Santa Claus!"

"Really?"

These things, these people are just some of the ones we, the class of '63, will always remember when we leave our alma mater N.M.R.H.S.

"Amen"

"Gee, it's cold."

"Crazy, man, crazy."

"And the day is done."

A TELEPHONE JOB

OFFERS BOTH CAREER

AND SOCIAL SATISFACTION

WITHOUT BREAKING STRIDE,

why not graduate from high school to the Telephone Company? You'll love the friendly young people who'll work with you, and the many social activities that make your work so pleasant and rewarding.

OPPORTUNITY IS EXCELLENT

and your ability will be recognized. Your starting salary should climb with regular increases. And, of course, Company benefits, security, and regular advancement are well-known reasons why working for the Telephone Company is so attractive to graduates.

TELEPHONE JOBS ARE IMPORTANT, vital to the effective communications of the community, the nation, and the world. When you take your place as a respected member of the telephone community, we'll train you, on full salary, even without previous job experience.

Why not come and see our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.
